City centre Apartment

Between Piazza Solferino and Piazza San Carlo, in the heart of the historic centre of Turin, a new bold and contemporary architectural project emerges, mirroring a city that is changing and constantly evolving towards the future. Clear cuts sculpt the views, the large windows that characterize all the rooms open up unprecedented perspectives on the city.

The historic and modern facades of the surrounding buildings dialogue with the interior of the apartments. Located on the third floor, the apartment is offered fully furnished with fine finishes and furniture. According to its project, it has an entrance, a large and bright living room with triple facing, a dining area and a kitchen separated from the living room by elegant glass walls. Laundry room and pantry next to the kitchen. The sleeping area has a master ensuite bedroom with changing room and three ensuite bedrooms. Garage, spa and private gym exclusively available to condominiums.
