Loft

Rif: To 449

Just few steps from Porta Nuova Station, modern and chic loft surrounded by the city center's most renowned shops and services.

Located in a historic building, the property extends over two levels—the ground floor and the first floor—and opens directly onto the internal courtyard, offering an oasis of tranquility. Soon to be renovated, it can be customized in terms of layout and choice of materials.

The project currently includes a large living area featuring a bright open space with an open-plan kitchen, where natural light floods the rooms thanks to the large arched windows and the generous ceiling height. Two bedrooms with en-suite bathrooms are also on the ground floor, while the mezzanine level includes a master bedroom with a dressing room and bathroom. A garage available in the property if necessary .
