On Corso Giovanni Lanza, between Villa Della Regina and Monte dei Cappuccini, Uptown shines thanks to the conversion of the La Salle order's structure in Villa San Giuseppe.

An exclusive and modern terrace overlooking Turin, nestled in the foothills, one of the city's most sought-after and prestigious areas. The apartment is on the second floor and comprises a spacious, panoramic, and bright living room, eat-in kitchen, dining area, three bedrooms, and three bathrooms. Two large terraces complete the property.

The building is enhanced by cohousing amenities such as a gym, a soccer field, and a padel court. The property also includes a convenient shared garage.
