Prestigious penthouse on the top floor of an elegant building in the heart of the city centre, on Via Lagrange 12. The property has recently been renovated, preserving its period character and integrating home automation systems and contemporary finishes. The building offers concierge service, video surveillance and underground garages. The facilities are further completed by a private gym and spa.

The apartment is served by a private lift with direct access and comprises an entrance hall leading to a large living room with lounge area, open-plan kitchen and dining area, three bedrooms with their own bathrooms and a laundry room. All of the rooms open onto the perimeter balcony. An internal staircase leads to the landscaped terrace with swimming pool.
