This magnificent eighteenth-century historic residence is set in an exclusive hillside location, with panoramic views over the city of Turin and only a few kilometres from the centre. Its privileged setting allows the eye to sweep 360 degrees across the surrounding landscape, encompassing the Alps, Monviso, the hill of Superga and the city centre with the Mole Antonelliana.

The main villa faces onto a large panoramic terrace, enhanced by a stone balustrade, and to the side onto a stretch of English lawn shaded by centuries-old trees.

The property is in excellent condition, thanks to a recent renovation that has successfully combined respect for the original structure, colours and materials with the comfort and contemporary feel of the furnishings. The residence offers more than six bedrooms with dressing areas and en-suite bathrooms, a large fitted laundry room, a gym and an indoor swimming pool. There is also accommodation for the staff.

Part of the grounds are set aside for a vegetable garden, a large orchard, a covered greenhouse and a football field. The deconsecrated church at the entrance to the property has been converted into a detached house.
