In the heart of Turin, magnificent apartment located on the first floor of a quiet building in a pedestrian area, on Via Lagrange 29.

The property has recently been renovated, redefining the interior spaces and creating a warm and comfortable atmosphere. The high-quality materials used for the finishes, such as marble and wood, together with the choice of colours, enhance the contemporary elegance of the interiors. The outlook onto the inner courtyard ensures tranquillity and privacy, despite the central location, just a few steps from all amenities and the main shopping streets.

The apartment comprises a large and bright living room with open-plan kitchen and central island, dining area and living space. The sleeping area includes a primary bedroom with large walk-in wardrobe and bathroom, two further bedrooms with their own bathrooms, and a practical laundry room.

The property is completed by two garages and a parking space in the courtyard.
