A new bold and contemporary architectural project takes shape between Piazza Solferino and Piazza San Carlo, in the heart of the historic center of Turin. The existing structure is reinterpreted with character and rigor to shape a compelling structure. Clean cuts sculpt the views, the light inspires the structure and the large windows that characterize all the rooms open new perspectives on the city. The historic and modern facades of the surrounding buildings interact with the interior of the apartments

The apartment is spread over four levels: the first has, as per the current project, a large glassed-in lounge, three bedrooms and 4 bathrooms; an internal staircase leads to the second level where the dining area with open kitchen is located, directly overlooking a large planted terrace with solarium area and hydromassage tub. A bedroom and a bathroom are available next to the dining area. The staircase then leads to two successive levels of terraces, used as a solarium and conversation area.
